

S&H Department Newsletter

Cultural Activities

Sankranthi Sambaralu

Staff of S&H Department

Message from the HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENTS & H

I feel it a matter of pride for me to be the HoD of the Department of Science and Humanities since 2008. I am thankful to the management for giving me this opportunity. At the outset I congratulate all our First Year students for getting promotion to Second year

SANKRANTHI SAMBARALU

Our honourable Chairman Sri Dr.Perumallu garu, Our Director Sri D Srinivas KumarGaruandOur belovedPrincipalSriDrJAppaRaograuintraditionalattireonSankranthi Sambaralu Fest.

OurchiefGuestSmtPurandhareswari,StatePresidentofBJP.addressingour childrenonthespectacularculturalevent'Sankranthi Sambaralu

Our Students from AL&D and AI&ML at their high spirit performing a dance on the hilarious cultural fest Sankranti Sambaralu

Focus on study as well as on cultural aspects is the strength of our students. Our CSE students' rhythmic performance in Kolatam stole the heart of everyone.

The roots of the great Indian culture lie in villages. Here is a replica of a village that reflects our professions, culture and the spirit of India. It was designed and built up with the assistance of our ART & Craft Club members.

When we think of Sankranthi Festival, the pious souls that come to mind are Haridasulu. Our B Tech students enacted as Haridasulu, who spread the spiritual values of India.

Art, culture and science are blended and tradition adapted, it competed and won Cultural Fest 'Sankranthi Sambarulu titled as Rangoli. Our girls inherited this medals and cash rewards in the vibrant

On the Grand Festive occasion, the Guest of honour Smt Vijayalakshmi giving her message. Our Dean Sri Prof. J. Kishore Babu Garu in the attire of Sardar Paparayudu as Emcee (MC) of the programme along with Sri Kalayna Chakravarthi, HOD of MBA Dept.

It is our time to perform, enjoy, encourage, inspire, chat and relax on this soulful day.

